

Who are you living for?

At the end of the day whose side are you on? God or the devil? It doesn't matter how you started, it only matters how you finish. I'm not making any excuses for you to live a raggedy lifestyle because we should live all that we know for the Lord. What I am saying is if you messed up or even sinned - it's not too late. You can humble yourself before God and turn back to him. God can take a bad situation and work his plan. God can take your mistakes and make it your ministry. Not your will but the Lord's will shall be done in your life. God's will is for you to be delivered. Despite your defeat and flaws, God wants you. God will overrule all of your downfalls and hang ups to bring deliverance to you. Remember this, it's not about you! God declared your ending in the beginning, he need you to obey and line up with his word. It's not too late to get on the Lord's side.
