

SETBACK

God can make your setback become your comeback.

Psalm 3:3 But You, O LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the lifter of my head.

No matter who you are - trouble will find you. Job 14:1 says, "Man born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble." Trouble have no respecter of person. Everyone goes through trouble.

In this world you will have trouble. There will be times of difficulty. But when the storms of life arise you've got to know that God is your refuge and strength, he's a very present help in times of trouble.

Let not your heart be troubled. Fear not, for God is with you; be not distressed, for God is your God; he will strengthen you. God will help you and uphold you. God will not leave you nor forsake you. You can take refuge in God. God got you and God got this. God is greater than the storm.

There has been no temptation that has overtaken you. God is faithful, he will not let you be tempted above that which you can handle. He will not allow you to bear more than you can bear. He has made a way of escape for you in the storm. You can handle this storm. This is a temporary setback. It's only a test.

You won't die in this storm but you shall live to declare the works of the Lord. There's a lesson to be learned in this storm. You will gain experience. Your faith will be much stronger. This setback will cause you to have total and complete reliance on God. It's a humbling experience.

This storm in your life is producing endurance. You might feel cripple by the storm but as Jacob wrestled all night with the Angel - he held on and he didn't let go. He held on for the blessing. You must hold on, don't give up, and don't break down but break through.

Weeping may endure for the night, but joy comes in the morning. Hold on! Dawn is about to break. God is still on the throne. God is going to do a new thing in your life. Now, it shall spring forth. This setback will be your greatest comeback. Just hold on to God!
